Where our shared experiences move from words to actions

Mental Health Engagement

What is Mental Health Engagement?

Engagement moves from words to actions towards a better experience of mental health.

It is a process of finding common ground and acknowledging the shared experiences of all.

It uses a partnership approach to bring about change in the planning, design, delivery and evaluation of H.S.E. mental

What is a local forum?

A forum is a regular meeting. Forums provide a space and opportunity for people to voice their experiences and present their views to improve outcomes for all.

This is the place to contribute if you have an opinion or experience of the mental health services in your area.

Forum meeting will be held every month in your locality.

This is the first and most important step in engagement.

Who is this for?

Your local mental health forum is for all who have experienced HSE Mental health services in the forum's locality and all those friends, carers and family members who support them.

The meetings are open and will be held monthly.

Regular attendance at the monthly meetings will support the continuity of the forum's work.

Become engaged in your local forum.

Engagement and partnership are not simple or easy and will take time.

It gives an opportunity to contribute to improving services and outcomes for all.

Support emerging voices and leaders in local engagement.

Be a part of it because you have a vital role to play.
